OUR THIRD YEAR

MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA, SEPTEMBER 25, 1952

NO. 17

WE'VE JUST MOVED TO 529 HARTNELL STREET

As this issue of the Armed Forces Banner rolls off the press, we change our address to 529 Hartnell Street, in the just-completed plant of W. T. Lee Co., printers and lithographers, two doors north of the Monterey post office.

The shop is in a brand new building of traditional local architecture and now boasts the most modern and efficient facilities of their kind in the central coast counties.

Our phone number remains 5-6316.

Learn professional sewing tricks at the Helen Chapin Home-sewing School. Where? At Holman's Department Store in Pacific Grove, in the yardage section on the street floor. Whether a beginner or an experienced seamstress, you'll learn streamlined and simplified methods that will shorten your sewing time one-third. Six-week series starts tomorrow. Register now, so as not to miss this wonderful opportunity to learn the tricks of sewing your own wardrobe.

Want to look smart with separates? Drop into Billie Dahl's Dress Shop, 604 Lighthouse Avenue in Monterey. They have their new fall line of sweaters. One I especially liked was a Wilshire knitwear 100% virgin wool with a roll-collar, soft and warm in gray, brown and green. It has a three-quarter sleeve and is cut in very flattering lines. You will also find adorable skirts to complete your outfit.

It's as simple as A-B-C to wash and dry clothes at Seaside Launderette, 1217 Fremont Extension. And look at all the work, time- and money-saving features! For clean, fresh-smelling clothes it's the answer to your washday blues. Drop in and see this modern, efficient launderette. Convenient hours, too: 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. weekdays, 9 A.M. to 5 P.M. Sundays.

A Navy Commander recently found out from Ken Ray that his family would receive $128 per month from Social Security. In addition to all other Government benefits, should anything happen to him! A law just passed places all service people under Social Security. But no benefits are paid unless applied for. Better call Ken Ray, 2-0524, right now! He will be glad to tell you about your own stake in Social Security, and tie all such benefits into One Package for you. Is it any wonder so many service people rely on his advice about insurance and investments? He knows the answers and is glad to share his knowledge with you!

Now that your hungry family is back to school, your meat bill will run even higher, but it does not have to! Peninsula Frozen Food Lockers and Service, 2110 Fremont in Monterey, can supply you with your meat at wholesale prices. It's custom-cut, aged and quick-frozen meat for lockers or home freezer. Be sure to ask about the wonderful budget plan designed to cut the price of your meat in half. Eat well and inexpensively by means of Peninsula Frozen Food Lockers and Service.

CONGRATULATIONS go to Col. Daniel J. Waligora, chief of medical service at Fort Ord's U. S. Army Hospital, on his promotion to permanent rank of full colonel. Commending him is Maj. Gen. Robert B. McClure, 6th Infantry Division commander. Col. J. L. Murchison, commanding officer of the hospital, looks on. —U. S. Army photo

Hunting season is approaching and for a complete supply of guns, ammunition and camping equipment it's Sports and Hobbies, 702 Cass Street, Monterey. Why not make your hunting trip this year a comfortable and well-supplied one? This shop has a full line of hunting accessories and dozens of items to help make a nimrod's day pleasant and successful. Convenient, off-street parking, too.

A beautiful new line of nylon pajamas with a suede finish is offered at the Rhetta Calhoun Corset Shop, 108 Webster Street in Monterey. They do not stretch and the new no-sag, no-shrink tricot gives warmth without weight. It's called Shadow Line lingerie. All the necessary features of a durable, comfortable, quick-drying as well as beautifully-styled garment. Be sure to see this new set at Rhetta Calhoun's Corset Shop.

The General Line School Students Wives' Club is sponsoring two ventures which they have asked to have included in this column.

One is the golf tournament to be held in November. Peg Witmer is in charge, so all you golfers among the wives at the school take note. Beginners and old timers are welcome. Call her at 7-4646 for information.

The second is a project to collect old, warm clothes to be used in an orphanage run by the Sisters of Charity in France, some 40 kilometers from Paris. It was destroyed by the Germans and is in a very poor farming area. The good nuns will remake to size any warm clothing you do not wish to take to your next post. Put things aside and call Mrs. Magnus Hjalmarson at 2-8481 for further details. Sheets, blankets, towels and wash cloths will be most appreciated.

CARY GIET

There were several birthday parties last week. So congratulations to Peggy Newton who was 8 and had her little friends make gingerbread men at her party. Diane Evans was 9 and her brother Lester was 10. They didn't have a party, but their mother thinks one would have been simpler, as they had their choice to eat for dinner. Lester had steak, pork chops, apple sauce and a white cake. Diane chose ripe olives and ate a can by herself, deviled eggs, apple sauce and a chocolate cake. Paula Buerger was 5 and she had a regular party, complete to ice cream, cake, and favors for her friends. Bonnie and Sydney Anne McMillan, Karen Johnson, Vicky Osbourne, Larry and David Clements, and Lenise Smith.

Diane Rothwell was 5 and invited the neighborhood children. Stephen Soltys gave balloons and toys to his friends to celebrate his fourth birthday. Joane Boutwell was 3 and the biggest thing about it was that her daddy was at home; the other two parties found him overseas.

Miss Anne Flynn who worked at the school and is a Navy Junior, had gone to Boston to enter Miss Gibbs' Secretarial School. Being a very popular member of the young set, she will be missed by her many friends. When she left by plane for Boston, quite a number went to the airport to wish her God-speed. Among them were Capt. and Mrs. Wells Thompson, Cdr. Louis Gulliver, Miss Nina Jackson, Miss Betty Swalier, Miss Jeanie Moore, Lt. Stuart Murray, John Butler, Wm. Henningsen, Warrington Cobb, Lawrence Stahl, and Russ Herron.

The Electronics and Physics Department Wives met at the home of Mrs. Charles Ryan for luncheon on Tuesday. Mrs. Abe Sheingold and Mrs. Neal Anderson were hostesses with Mrs. Byan. Afterwards they all went over to the pool. Plans were made for a picnic on Carmel beach tomorrow and for a supper party Nov. 1. They also plan a luncheon in October. The picnic was fun with the children delighted to be present and behaving so beautifully that they have earned another invitation to a family affair.

C-5 Wives had a dinner at La Playa on Thursday last with Mrs. Henry Noon in charge of arrangements, which included a beautiful floral decoration.

B-6 had their luncheon at Rancho Del Monte Country Club. It was a marvelous opportunity for me to meet the girls in the section whose names were so familiar to me as I have written so many times. I have Liz Diehl to thank for a lovely party. Mrs. E. P. Parker and Mrs. D. P. Wencker were in charge and made delightful place cards. Minute men climbing coconut trees with nuts in a thatched roof hut (nut cup).

PAULA BUERGER
Happy 5-year-old

Mrs. A. J. Knudsen entertained at a bridge and canasta party for her mother, Mrs. Walter Diefendorfer of Boise, Idaho. Prizes were won by Mrs. John Adams and Mrs. Peter Agur.

B-4 Wives had their luncheon at Mission Inn with Mrs. Wallace McDonald and Mrs. Harry Hoch as hostesses. Mrs. Paul DeTamble's mother was a guest.

B-1 Wives had their September luncheon at Rancho Los Laureles Lodge with Mrs. R. B. Read, Mrs. E. D. Nunnery and Mrs. S. R. Peppe as hostesses. Among the guests were Mrs. E. B. Holley Sr. of Aiken, S. C., who with Mr. Holley is visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. E. B. Holley Jr.; Mrs. Allen Abrams who is the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. H. Langdon Smith, and Mrs. D. C. Cubbinson of Carmel. Mrs. G. A. Robinson won the door prize.

The Hard Times Party was a big success and there will be money for the Christmas charities the girls were so anxious about. The costumes were riots and everyone had a good time. These girls really deserve a great deal of credit for their efforts.

The next big thing on the agenda is the party to be given by the Naval Engineers tomorrow night and the six performances of a "Night in Bali." Reservations are being made. . . rumor is that tickets are hard to get.

Ann Blyth, Universal-International film star, was crowned "Queen of the 20th Regiment" Sunday afternoon. Miss Blyth reigned over the Organization Day celebration which marked the 66th birthday of the regiment. Regimental commander Lt. Col. Lewis H. Keyes crowned the actress with a helmet liner at the Ord stadium.

Pvt. Jack Martin, trainee in "D" company of the 20th, was selected as an outstanding soldier to be Miss Blyth's official escort for the day. (Photo on Page 1)

The lovely lady, who is described as even more gorgeous in person than on the screen, gave two shows Saturday for the personnel of Ft. Ord.

There were other prominent visitors at Ft. Ord last week. Maj. Gen. James G. Christiansen, commanding officer of the 6th Armored Division at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., and Maj. Gen. Alexander G. Paxton, who commands the 31st Division at Camp Atterbury, Ind., toured the post with members of their staffs. Several days were spent observing training procedures at Ord.

A stag cocktail party was given last week for Lt. Col. Frank C. Sinsel, former commanding officer of Division Artillery. He had been assigned as Division G-4. Lt. Col. Thomas G. Boardman is the new Divarty commander.

A farewell party was given for Maj. Joseph L. Anzini last week. Maj. Anzini, former commanding officer of the 3rd battalion, 63rd Inf., left for Ft. Benning, Ga., to attend the associate officers advanced course. Lt. John H. Barnett was in charge of the party given by the officers and cadre of the battalion.

The 20th Infantry ladies luncheon last week had a back-to-school theme. Decorations were made by the hostesses, Mrs. Reginald R. Sheppard and Mrs. Cecil C. Waggoner. Three newcomers were welcomed to their first unit luncheon.

They were Mrs. Harmon Miles, Mrs. C. W. Gilberg, and Mrs. Fred Davis.

Mrs. E. Cline Fletcher last week entered Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco to undergo surgery. It is expected that she will be a patient for about a month. Her address is Ward O-1, Letterman Army Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco.

Divarty wives had their monthly luncheon last week at the Club. Mrs. Frank C. Sinsel introduced the new commander's wife, Mrs. Thos. G. Boardman. Hostesses were Mrs. Chester C. Myers, Mrs. George E. Kennedy, and Mrs. Charles I. Caldwell.

Lt. and Mrs. Silas W. Bass, Jr., have made grandparents of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bass for the second time. Born last week at the Ft. Ord hospital, the little girl weighed 6 lbs. 7½ ozs. and has been named Carolyn Jean. The Junior Mrs. Bass is staying with her parents-in-law while her husband is overseas.

On the 19th, Mrs. Lewis H. Keyes gave birth to a 4 lb. 11 oz. daughter. The tiny little girl has been named Cynthia Louise. Her father is commanding officer of the 20th regiment.

Other recent Ord babies include Daniel Edmond Goldstein whose parents are Lt. and Mrs. Herbert Solomon Goldstein. He weighed 7 lbs. 9¼ ozs. Lt. and Mrs. Robert Donald Stevenson's son, Robert Thomas, who arrived on Sept. 12, weighed 7 lbs.

Capt. and Mrs. Harle Virgil Barrett's little girl was born on the 11th. Jane Frances weighed 7 lbs. 10½ ozs.

Lt. and Mrs. Noel D. Burks added an 8 lb. 6 oz. boy to the diaper set on the 11th. He was named Noel D. Burks II.

A son was born to Lt. and Mrs. Roger Archie Rogers on the 17th. Named Strathmore Keith, the baby weighed 7 lbs. 5 ozs.

Of news to these and other parents—the Ft. Ord Children's nursery will no longer be open on Saturday afternoons. The nursery will continue to be in operation from 6 P.M. until 1 A.M. on Saturdays. The Pacific Heights Youth Center has a new schedule. It will be AGAIN A STAR, Sue Lowry is an Army wife who has just scored another hit as "Camille" in the play of the same name which goes into its second week tomorrow night at California's First Theatre. Sue is glimpsed above in one of the many elaborate costumes used in the production. She has just finished a successful lead in "Way Down East" on the same stage, playing opposite her husband, Pvt. Bruce Lowry of the Army Language School.
